America is a great country.

The Bill of Rights gives us special freedoms.

We have free speech.

We can gather peaceably.

We can choose our own religion.

Our press is free.

We have the right to a fair trial.

The United States Constitution

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article. 1.

Section 1.

All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2.

Clause 1: The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Clause 2: No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including Indians bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. (See State 2) The actual Enumeration shall be made three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and in every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand; but each State shall have at least one Representative, and until such Enumeration shall be made, the States of New Hampshire shall be entitled to three Representatives, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland three, Virginia five, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

Whenever there shall happen in any State a Vacancy in the Representation from any State, the Electors in such State shall issue Writs of Election to fill such Vacancies.

The Speaker and other Officers of Representatives shall be chosen in each House, and the Speaker shall be chosen by the sole Voice of a Majority of the Members of each House.

The Bill of Rights is part of our Constitution. It keeps us free.

It's great to live in America!
