

Working With Words Phonics Lessons

Lesson # 46 Date: _____

Introduce: Blends with r (tr, br, fr)

Before beginning lesson, review the following concepts:

- Alphabet is a code that lets us write our thoughts or words we speak so someone else can read them
- Two ways to write each letter—capital and lower case
- 26 letters in the alphabet
- Two kinds of letters – consonants and vowels
- Letters make words
- Words make sentences
- Sentences go together to make stories, letters, etc.

Using the Key Word cards, review all letters and sounds previously taught.

Teach: Review the definition of a blend and how to mark them.

Pronounce tr, br, and fr.

Dictation:

truck, brim, frog, trot, brag, frost, trod, brass, from, trap, brat, frock, trim,
